

THE APPEAL.

FOR THE POOR YE HAVE ALWAYS WITH YOU."

"The Sabbath just past—
It's called all day,
And to church come thronging
To hear the Master say,
And matins grace and mercy,
And addidous' shipping fees—
With smiles and many laughter,
The people open their eyes—
As we happen along—
When the greatest灾厄s laye ready
Have never been at his—
The sweet music over the organ,
And will tune voice singing
The psalm of the Lord.

The church doors are open,
And bended knee in prayer,
With bright voice intoned—
The time that rules the earth—
A like that makes the heart—
A like that makes the heart—
There is a God in Heaven—
Not the gods he made, say—
Then be called the treasure—
To the power the three,
With whom he reigns—
A bright beauty, when
He comes he brings gifts—
For peace, for health, for peace,
And his bright gifts—
He bathes them in grace,

He bathes them in grace,
